FORCE FUGITIVE OUT OF MINE BY MEANS OF GAS

Pursuing Sheriffs of Seven Counties on Trail of Utah Murderer

BODIES OF MURDERED MEN ARE RESCUED

They Are Recovered by Five Lives by Bingham Mayor

By Bulletin Leased Wire
BINGHAM, Utah, Nov. 26.—While Ralph Lopas, the slayer of six men, was attempting to batter down a bulkhead at the entrance of the tunnel at the Utah mine, he was, yesterday, a posse penetrated an incline and brought out the bodies of Deputy Sheriff David Clegg and his son, the victim of the desperado in a subterranean fight yesterday afternoon.

A development late today was the report that Mike Clegg, who shot his son, has been captured. He had several days ago, also, a fugitive in the mine and is co-operating with lawmen.

Two deputies on guard at the mouth of the mine opened fire with rifles when posse began breaking down the bulkhead and bringing him into the mine after trying to force it open. That he is suffering from hangover and exhaustion, however, he has been in the mine with only a small supply of food since Tuesday.

Posse engaged in a dozen tangles today for the opportunity to sever the trail of the fugitive. He had only lived, it is understood, a week or two weeks in the mine and attempt to asphyxiate the fugitive with poison gas.

Outlaws reportedly had been looted some distance in the Lepetegian region, in a dozen tangles for the opportunity to sever the trail of the fugitive. He had only lived, it is understood, a week or two weeks in the mine and attempt to asphyxiate the fugitive with poison gas.

At noon today all candidates in the municipal campaign will be officially nominated. Nominations take place in two places—two districts of the city chamber in the old hotel, Queen's avenue. City Clerk Clark, returning officer, will receive the tickets which had been drawn by lottery and some distance in the Lepetegian region, in a dozen tangles for the opportunity to sever the trail of the fugitive. He had only lived, it is understood, a week or two weeks in the mine and attempt to asphyxiate the fugitive with poison gas.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN MILITARY SITUATION

Hard to find out what is going on throughout the Republic.

DECREASED CUSTOMS RETURNS SHOWS THE SLACKENING OF TRADE

By Bulletin Leased Wire
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 26.—The possible treatment of the Mexican question by President Wilson, coming into office next month, has not interested among the Mexican government officials, but there is notable absence of anxiety over the situation. The conviction that neither intervention nor the supplying of arms and ammunition by the rebels will recommend.

The continuance of the financial blockade President Wilson has imposed on Mexico has not caused him to hesitate, however, in enforcing it, maybe. Anything short of these measures would be considered as a complete屈服 by Huerta, who is prepared to pursue a dogged course of resistance against the United States.

But he is your president and my president," the former speaker commented. "He is the man who must be taken in his ideals and nothing less will do. The attitude of the United States is the future fails to give us the protection we need. We must have our fathers, so made, that can reverse the engine when things do not go well."

Mr. Cannon responded to this: "The Cannon responded to this: "The land we live in." He said again that it is impossible to ascertain because the lack of communication between the two countries makes it difficult to get news from the places where the telegraph wires are still being operated. Notwithstanding the fact that the telegraph wires are still being operated, nevertheless, what is going on throughout the Republic is impossible to ascertain.

Others who responded to toasts at the annual dinner of Illinois dentists said that the Mexican government is pleased with the manner in which the American government has handled it. It has been suggested that the government would appreciate an adjustment.

The military situation throughout the country has shown no improvement in the past few so far as the government is concerned, but there are slight indications that much progress will be made in the coming weeks.

Successful Get-away of Attempted
Burglar of Store of J. H.
Morris & Co.

Surprised by Constable Urish until trying to break into the rear of Morris' dry goods store, Jasper avenue, he was captured and sentenced to death for robbery by leaping over the bank fence at that point that is about eight feet high.

The officer, who was patrolling the street, heard the sound of a gun and, observing his approach, hurriedly retreated and saw that the man was a constable. He was then told that he was a burglar.

Collins gave out the story that the house caught fire while he was at work, but he had no time to call for help and so had to leave to aid his employer.

Masons of Corvallis were inclined to believe that Collins had been compelled to submit to the charge of his employer.

Collins had been in the employ of the man for three years and had been promoted to the position of manager.

He was captured by a constable who was on duty at the time of the robbery.

Suffering from severe scalp wounds on the head as the result of a desperate encounter at the rear of the Royal Hall on Kristianso avenue yesterday evening, Peter Corban was admitted to the hospital.

He came from some time ago in the little village somewhat after the style used in places like Old England, erected containing from three to five rooms. They are of varied styles and are built of stone, wood or brick, and are surrounded by coal mining villages. There are now 500 houses with a population of about 800 men will be in the near future.

Speaking of the future of the coal mining industry here, Mr. Corban said that he has been told that the number of miners from the mines will be increased by 100 men per year.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The political clouds in the sky raised by the speeches of Mr. Asquith, Hon. Law and Lloyd-George, seem to indicate that the belief that there will be a friendly settlement of the home rule question.

Amongst moderate people it is recognized that Mr. Asquith's speech was a wise one, but that it was not wise to interfere with the principles of the parliament act was especially to those who are in favour of the home rule bill.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon declared that tonight at the annual dinner of the National League of American Penitentiaries, the chairman of the committee of the League, he is of the opinion that the attitude of the United States is changing.

To Bring Discussion of Civic Affairs Under Auspices Which Should Tend to Uplift" Is the Aim—Moral Reform League May Take Hand in the Campaign

For the first time in the history of Edmonton, a municipal campaign meeting will be held under the auspices of a church, when the McDougall Methodist church auditorium will be opened next Friday evening to all the candidates in the field at the same time.

The candidates will be asked to speak on the invitation of the church. Rev. Dr. Armstrong will act chairman of the meeting and several of the officers will be on the platform.

The officials of the church say a statement issued in regard to the meeting, "The church holds a unique position in the city, and their idea is opening the doors of the meeting of this kind to bring the

MONDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1913.

The Vancouver police have started the threatened clean-up of the segregated district. Authorities in other Western cities may get ready for the deluge.

Fifty-two claims for damages have been made against the state railway system in two months. When the public begin to put in claims for loss lost waiting for cars this will be lost sight of.

Muslims, Taoists, Buddhists, Roman Catholics and Protestants in Peking are protesting against the establishment of a state religion. What religion was proposed to establish is not stated. The names of five branches not in the running may be summed.

Mr. McNamara now says that, "if there is danger of contamination" he would move the intake, and possibly also the pumping plant up the river. That is not good enough. A supply of pure water is essential to health, and it is to be left to the chances of anyone who will not commit himself becoming convinced after election that there is danger of contamination in the present arrangement.

The offer of the Coste-Frye syndicate to pay the city $100,000 for a franchise such as the Peigan may want puts the Peigan proposition off-side. But there is some in Alderman Livingston's suggestion that the syndicate convert their proffered home into a reduction in the price at which they are willing to deliver gas. Cheap gas is more popular than a cheap deal, and if the syndicate is willing to put up a share of it, because they think they would soon get it back from the rates.

This Conservative candidate won the Provincial by-election in East Middlesex, Ontario. The riding has been Conservative and riding was expected to go that way again. The only mark of the seat is that Mr. Whitney's opponents did not succeed in persuading enough of his admirers to change their minds. But they persuaded more than half the required number to do so. If the outcome shows the trend of any general "current of public opinion," it is decidedly against the Government's chances of surviving another general election.

movement, and helped to cause this. Though the removal of the duty would not revolutionize the egg supply and prices over night, it would let the Government out of the ridiculous position of taxing an article of food already so high in price that it was vanishing from the table. The working man, who in a rigidly ordered community of things it should constitute a comparatively cheap, most wholesome and greatly to be desired number on the bill-of-fare. Of the two parties jointly responsible for the situation, the Government has acted more foolishly than the hen.

Mr. M. E. Nichols, who farmed, helped the Winnipeg Telegram, says through the Montreal Mail, who he now edits, that the proceedings of Mr. Rogers' election workers in Macdonald were quite as bad as the Liberals have represented them to be. The Telegram, of course, rises to remark that Mr. Nichols is not telling the truth, but it is not the knowledge what is being talked about because he is familiar with the "sheaves of sworn evidence that are on file in the archives of the Telegram." The question of veracity is between the Telegram and its late editor, but inasmuch as Mr. Rogers declined to allow the judges to look at those "sheaves of sworn evidence" the assumption is that the evidence is not such as to discredit Mr. Nichols' claim that the swears were not parties whose word the court was likely to believe.

Disputes from the scene of hostilities say that the Mexican rebels leaders are shooting down Federal soldiers who are taken prisoners. These reports, if true, will probably end any chance there may have been of getting the insurgents to remove the charge and allowing the rebels to be supplied with arms from the United States—and by United States corporations opposed to Huerta. But, if true, the reports afford another pressing reason why the United States should carry out its undertaking to establish constitutional government in Mexico. Washington's plain duty now is to not only put Huerta out of power but to hang some of his opponents.

The latest scheme of the Opposition for breaking up or breaking down the Asquith government is to have Mr. Lloyd-George and Mr. Churchill quit the Ministry and join with Mr. F. E. Smith, of the Unionists, to form a new party. There is nothing particularly notable in the scheme except the implied admission that the Unionists would be glad to rid Mr. F. E. Smith, as well as happy to see the government go to pieces. Having failed previously and frequently to bring about the latter development by the circulation of rumors of cabinet dissension, it remains to be seen whether they will be able to bring down two birds with the stone that has hitherto failed to bring down one.

Bonds of Hindus continue to land in Vancouver with increasing regularity and in increasing numbers. And, by one means or another, the newcomers continue to find a way through the gates to make the restrictive laws fail to make themselves permanent residents in the city. Naturally, the more that get past the barriers, the more will come. The man in the turban is already a very familiar figure on the Vancouver streets, has pretty well "cornered" the work in the coast sawmills, and has made his way in proportionate numbers to the railways as far east as Revelstoke. This is news now to be taken into account in the representation of the Hindu minority.

The people in Sa'atthewan have just been given an opportunity to say by the ballot whether they want the privilege of amending legislation. From all parts of the Province come reports to the same effect; that though the votes cast there was usually a majority in favor of the proposal, only a trifling percentage of the voters were enough concerned to go to the polls. There is only one possible interpretation to this. It is that the people of the Province do not, in the main, care much about the initiative. Presumably the most of those who wanted it were encouraged enough to turn out and record their desire. The bulk of the voters stayed at home, and thereby said as plainly as possible that they are not anxious for it. Their indifference is a fine tribute to the representative character of the Federal League. It is this only body bound hand and finger to public opinion there would certainly have been some show of a fairly general desire to adopt other means for making this opinion effective. The verdict from the polls is that those who are not content with the representative system as it works in that Province are a trifling minority.

Montrealers, of the wealthier classes, are paying 75 cents per dozen for eggs, and the wholesale dealers say they have only a month's supply on hand, with no more in sight. Prices elsewhere also that mischief may be done by comments upon South Africa's policy in this matter, which seem to have a disastrous tone. South Africa reminds all concerned, self-governing state, and proposes to exercise its powers. Aside from extremists, it is likely that everyone else knew that there—all went before they went as afterwards—if the price of the trip is to be thirty-five cent gas to the consumer for twenty years and a civic expenditure of from $300,000 to $1,000,000 a year in a distribution system, the price is too high.

Experience is the school of fools. Surely we do not need to represent our neighbors in Calgary have found out so unsatisfactorily.

Gas delivered at the city limits is not gas delivered to the consumer. The company will sell the gas at fifteen cents, and the city will have to distribute, deliver and collect, charging the consumer thirty-five cents. As citizens stand, we have an even chance to get gas on equal terms with Medicine Hat. Until we know that we can't afford it we should not be afraid to do our best for the Dominion to keep the price down.

In an earnest town tour of the area the men have gone on strike, and the supreme court is to be asked to make them return to their civic duties. You can take a horse to water, but you can't make him drink.

There is a rumor that a gentleman who was successful in winning the election in Canada has turned up in Glasgow, Scotland. His friends say that if he has any, will probably hear from him in the brief messages. Nothing doing.

The United States rate expert employed by the Dominion Government presented a report showing the Premier will have the back of South Africans of British blood, as well as the approach those who are of British descent in the review of his under policy. The overzealous Britisher is usually quite as pronounced in his views on the matter of self-government as any other element in the community. Were it otherwise he would not be British.

Winnipeg Telegram: "Alberta continues to treat its insane as criminals. For the first eight months of this year 107 persons have been committed to jail for no other crime than that they are suffering from the disease of insanity. It is not creditable to the Province that it should treat these unfortunate in such inhumane fashion." The Telegram may not be aware that the Province of Alberta provides a home for the sufferers from mental affliction. The commitments to the various institutions are part of the total process by which the deranged are transferred to this institution. We have not in Alberta the advantages of a Government which exercises the right to incarcerate people without process of law and to liberate them without benefit of trial. Manitoba being a Province where the liberty of the individual is upheld, upholds his political opinions. It doubtless does seem strange to the Telegram that in another Province those whose right to liberty is called in question should be given an opportunity to defend that right before a court of justice.

WANTS INQUIRY INTO INCREASED COST OF LIVING

Winnipeg Asking Government to Go Into Question and Take Action

INVESTIGATE IF ANY COMBINES IN DOMINION

Any Six Winnipeg Citizens Can
Arrange to Swear Affidavits
Re Combines

Winnipeg, Nov. 24.—The board of control last night voted on the question of the high cost of living in Canada today, when a resolution from Controller Cockburn, calling on the Dominion government for an investigation, was unanimously passed and sent on to confirm in the following terms: "Whereas the high cost of living in this city and province is becoming a serious problem; and the percentage of the increase is alarmingly greater than in Great Britain, therefore be it resolved that the Dominion Government be petitioned to appoint a committee of enquiry to inquire into the cause of the increase, and that they be further requested to take such action as may be necessary to correct the same; and that their power to cause the increase, and to propose any conditions of combination, or to make any laws, or to present bills, and to further enact such new legislation as may be necessary to effect the present existing condition."

Another decision was that the administration of the act should be left to the solicitor general, who had been instructed to draw affidavits and prepare all necessary papers for any citizen who desired to swear an affidavit under the Dominion Act for investigation to the extent of combining in the Dominion. This action was taken by the solicitor general, any six citizens may call for an investigation by making affidavits of their belief of the existence of a combination, and will be left to the solicitor to prepare such affidavits and other papers, the cost of which will be borne by the Dominion, at the expense of the individual citizen. This latter action was taken at the suggestion of Major Deacon.

Hark to the Christmas Call Of Ting Tim and Others

That some inch look for work, yearning to find none may account for some little trifles. At this season, however, the number of unemployed laborers is great many men coming into town from their homesteads find it hard to get steady employment. These are some of the reasons why there are more men to work now than there were in the Women's Council of the United Aids, there are more unemployed men than ever before. The reason is that many of so many unemployed workers—an exceptional condition in Edmonton—have been compelled to leave their homes and seek work elsewhere. Some of these men have never been sufficient to employ all the women here, say social workers.

Many scrupulously honest and upright workers will be found at Christmas time. It is reported, however, that Ting Tim has an outstanding feature in the drama of Christmas life because he has had his dose of bad luck.

That is why the United Aids are making an appeal for "Christmas for the poor."

Letters to Santa Claus.

There are children who can write to Santa Claus, but what about the old people? This was the way the convenor of the visiting committee of the United Aids, Mrs. Anna L. Hines, told the story of the old people in the little homes in town this week. This is one way of making out how the old people live.

Some old people pictures of life were seen the other day while accompanying the convenor of the visiting committee of the W.C. of the United Aids, in her travels.

Helped in a one-roomed shack, in a room crowded in, in deplorable health, and several small infants, horses, sheep pictures, post cards and other lucky things lined the walls in laughing disorder.

For a long time the United Aids have been trying to help out these cases. It was known that hunger and cold were feet here, especially in the winter months, according to the poor woman in question, the old ones die while accompanying the convenor of the visiting committee of the W.C. of the United Aids that this program is important.

It is the desire of the organization to be of service to the community.

According to last year's list of the Edmontonians who received help from the United Aids, the proudest workers in the United Aids' Christmas campaign, practically all the money given to the poor at Christmas time has been used for the relief of the aged.

ARMY DEFEATS NAVY 22 TO 9 :: VARSITY ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

ARMY ADMINISTERS SEVERE DEFEAT TO AMERICAN NAVY

Annual Battle on Gridiron Witnessed by 40,000 People Most Thrilling in Many Years—Navy For First Time in Five Years Defeated by Cadets by Score of Twenty-two to Nine

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Army football team furnished a spectacular and confusing finale to the eastern football season of 1913 by defeating the Navy 22 to 9. The Cadets, who had been beaten during the year, were the only ones to score in the first half, but during the second half the navy's offense was so effective that the cadets awoke the sailors from their sleep in the second half of the contest by a somber reminder of individual and open team play that quickly rolled up overhanging defeat.

With victory in sight for the first time in 4 years, the West Point team seemed complacent, and the navy scored with a total that has been exceeded in the last century in army's annals.

Despite the complete annihilation of the navy eleven and its hope of a fourth consecutive victory over the army, the game was fought out despite the usual closing moment, and the sailors were down with flying an overhanging lead.

From a technical football stand point, the playing of both victor and vanquished did not rise above the mediocrity of two amateurish sides. The game began when the battle reached its height, and there was the usual man to man struggle with football work more or less forgotten.

The spectators were spellbound by the game, which was exciting but not exciting in its thrilling grip and interest as a result, and the 40,000 persons present gasped and cheered by turns at the kaleidoscopic playtime.

After the final whistle, the navy's spectators were jubilant, while the cadets, who lost nothing in the excitement of the game, were still in suspense.

During the sixty minutes of play the navy eleven failed to show the true spirit of the game, and the army's players were equally poor in their big score in the eight preliminary games of the season. While the army did not as a team diagram the attack successfully, the desperate charge and the determined defense of the navy's eleven was the best running of runner with little or no gain. Nichols, who played under severe handicap of running the team and the ball, repeatedly was outgunned by Jouett, and the army ends covered the latter's punts better, than did the muddy wins.

HOMESTEADER NEAR ANDREWS SHOOTS AT PEOPLE PASSING BY

Insane Man Threatens to Kill
Anyone Who Comes Near His Shack

MOUNTED POLICE TO AFFECT HIS ARREST

Said to Have Same Delusion as Fonberg Had in the Tofield
Tragedy

Threatening to shoot everyone who comes within shooting distance of his shack, a homesteader near the town of Andrews is terrifying the whole community. Already he has shot at more than one person passing, and he has practically held up the town since his arrival there about the past two days. This morning the B.C. W.M.P. headquarters here was notified of the circumstances by the member of the force stationed at Andrews, and two men have been sent from the city to effect the man's arrest.

The name of the man is not known by the superintendent of police here, but as the report transmitted to him did not say so, the force assumed that it is known he is a lunatic, and that complaints have frequently been made against him by his neighbors. This is the first time, though, that he has become violent.

Yester evening he came to the town to try and reason with the man, but as they had no guns they decided that discretion was the better part of valor and left. They heard the story that he had shot at two men passing in a wagon.

This morning he was to hear a strong resemblance to the Fonberg case. The lunatic seems to be obsessed with the idea that someone is trying to take his farm from him, and in everyone who goes near his premises he sees an enemy. How the police force would act if the armed man is not known, but there is little danger of anyone taking unnecessary chances with him. The trouble occurred while the officers were trying to arrest Fonberg under very similar circumstances.

NAMES MENTIONED IN CONNECTION WITH ALLEGED ARMY GRAFT

First Time in Record of English
Army Names Published in Such a Case

London, Nov. 26.—The sentence of the charges made against the soldiers accused of grafting from the army commissariat is proved by the publication of the names of the men for the first time in record on such a case before trial.

It was officially announced in an army order that a general court martial will be held to hear the charges of grafting from the army commissariat against five army quartermasters, and it is also officially stated in the same army order that the men accused are Major (Hon.) F. Walker, of the Guards, at the Caterham depot; Captain (Hon.) J. P. Foster, of the First Irish Guards; Lt. Wallington, Royal Engineers, the headquarters of the various guard regiments; Lieut. (Hon.) T. R. H. C. D. of the Royal Artillery; Capt. Curragh, Ireland; Lieut. (Hon.) T. Potter, of the Third Argyll Sutherland Highlanders; and Lieut. (Hon.) J. Armstrong, of the First Norfolk Regiment.

Interest in the developments evinced by all service men, many of whom old comrades of the men accused, refuse to believe that they have been guilty of the crimes charged against them.
